OF ALL ADVANTAGES offered to purchasers the most liberal and the most sensible is that given by Mr. Rudden, the well-known furniture dealer at 930 and 932 7th street northwest. For a small cash payment you can furnish your home in the most attractive and comfortable manner, and while enjoying the benefits of it you are paying for it in such a way as hardly to miss the sums spent. The problem of how to make home happy has never, in our opinion, received a better solution than that offered by Mr. Rudden to make it attractive at the low prices and easy terms given to purchasers at his establishment. MINISTER AND HIS LITTLE BOY CURED OF OB-STINATE SKIN DISEASES BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES. PRAISES THEM IN THE PULPIT. HOME AND IN THE STREET.

CURED BY CUTICURA.

For about thirteen years I have been troubled with eczema or some other cutaneous disease which ail lowed the directions carefully and it affords me much pleasure to say that before using two boxes of the CUTICURA, four cakes of CUTICURA SOAP and one bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT I was entirely cured. In addition to my own case my baby boy, then about five monthsold, was suffering with what I supposed to be the same disease as mine, to such an extent that his head was coated over with a solid scab, like kernels on the back of his head. Thanks to your wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES his scalp is per-A slight fire took place at house 2627 I street northwest, occupied by James White, yester-day afternoon, caused by children playing with that there is only little place by his left ear and that is healing nicely. FICTION A CHARMING STORY BY A NEW AUTHOR. A DIPLOMAT'S DIARY.

By Julian Gordon. 12mo. Cloth, $1. "The charm of the story lies in the dainty way in "The charm of the story lies in the dainty way in which it is treated. It is written in a style that is always simple and clear, frequently effective and never overwrought."—Boston Traveller.

"A strong story. Realistic enough to be either a clever work of art or a record of fact. The stage upon which the little drama is played, the people who pass over it, the customs and manners, these are courately taken rom life, and by one who has occupied a position within the diplomatic circle."—New York Tribuse.

MRS. A. L. WISTER'S POPULAR TRANSLATIONS FROM THE GERMAN. Just Issued: "O, THOU, MY AUSTRIA!"

From the German of Ossip Schubin, author of "Erlach Court," &c. 12mo. Cloth, $1.25. "A more charming story, or one more charmingly told, is not often met with. It has at once all the char-acteristics of a German story and all the cirility of Mrs. Wister's work as a translator."—Philodelphia Times. so rapidly at 98 cts. at the Domestic Sewing

ETC., ETC. "The novel-reading public of the United States owe a debt of gratitude to Mrs. A. I., Wister for her transla-tions from the German, partly for the judgment she has always shown in her selection of authors to be trans-lated and partly for the skill and taste that has always characterized her versions or adaptations, if indeed it would not be better to call them her improvements of the originals."—New York Mail and Express.
